Madrid is a city full of historical monuments, modern architecture and places you have to see. Hop aboard the hop on – hop off bus tour and don't miss one corner of this beautiful city. See Madrid at your own pace with no hurry or hassle thanks to this scenic tour aboard a double-decker bus. Enjoy panoramic views of Spain's vibrant and fascinating capital city from the top of this open-roofed double-decker bus. This hop-on-hop-off tour gives you complete flexibility to get on and off as many times as you want. Overnight in Madrid. Day 02 Breakfast, Day 2 Hop on Hop off. Enjoy the most breathtaking views of Madrid. Explore the city at your leisure with the same ticket, changing between either of the two routes at any time, and get to know more about the history of Madrid with a convenient audio headphone system in 14 languages. There are different routes available, covering historical and modern Madrid. You'll be driven through the elegant squares and baroque buildings of Habsburg Madrid, through bustling broad boulevards and sleepy squares, where time seems to have stood still, thus seeing surprising, unknown angles on this modern metropolis. Entrance ticket to Home to Picasso's Guernica, the Centro de Arte Reina Sofia has the most significant collection of contemporary art in Madrid. Other major artists displayed are Dalí and Miro. Overnight in Madrid. Day 03 Breakfast, Enjoy an exciting trip to an authentic outdoor museum; in Toledo. In the heart of Spain and surrounded by the River Tagus, this impressive city is considered to be a second Rome and invites you to live an unforgettable experience. Its churches, synagogues, mosques, convents, walls, bridges, turrets, etc. constitute an important artistic and cultural legacy, fueling the coexistence between Christians, Arabs, and Jews for centuries. Lose yourself in its narrow streets, squares, and gardens, and admire the monumental richness. The tour includes stops at the Primada Cathedral, the Mirador del Valle, the Monastery of San Juan de Los Reyes, and the Puente de San Martín. Also in the Castilian lands stands another of the most visited cities in Spain: Segovia. Among its main attractions is the Roman aqueduct, the symbol of excellence of the city. Contemplate this majestic construction that leads the water from the mountain range to the city before visiting the Alcázar, one of the most emblematic castles of the country with its surprising shape, similar to that of the hull of a boat. On your walk around the old town, you will also have the opportunity to admire the beautiful cathedral and the Plaza del Azoguejo, where the market was once held. Overnight in Madrid. Day 04 Breakfast, Transfer to Madrid Airport/ Train station by your arrangement. End of Services.
